

Use of Audio-visual equipment during the Course

Please be advised that the use of audio/visual equipment to record course tutors or patients is strictly prohibited during the course. There may be exceptions, regarding lecture material under special circumstances, but the use must have been discussed with the course tutors prior to the start of the course.